

Snow Camp 2008

Come play in the snow with friends!

*Enjoy sledding, snowballs, and snow sculpting.
Try cross-country skiing over the snowy landscape. Warm up inside the heated program center with cookies and hot cocoa.
Take a break to make a craft, play games and sing songs with friends!*

Who can come?

Snow Camp 2008 is open to all Girl Scouts, who have had a successful overnight camping experience before. Snow Camp is a wonderful experience that all ages can enjoy! No special equipment is necessary, and all meals are provided. Girls are encouraged to bring their favorite sled!

Accommodations:

Snow Campers sleep in the newly renovated heated Program Center at Camp Timbercrest. The Program Center now has a shower room and flush toilets available all year long. Warm meals, snacks and beverages are served throughout the weekend. Girls will be active inside and out.

Supervision:

Snow Camp is a special experience staffed by council and volunteer adult staff. Certified RTE (Responding to Emergencies), First Aid and CPR trained staff are in residence at all times.

T-Shirts:

Specially designed Snow Camp 2008 long-sleeved t-shirts will be available by pre-order only for $15.00. T-shirts must be ordered and paid for at the time of registration. Please indicate size when ordering (Child Med, Child Large, Adult S- 2XL.)

Patches:

Snow Campers get a Snow Camp patch.

Frosty Fun

Come to a snowy session designed just for Daisies, Brownies and Juniors! Try sledding, snowmen, snow sculptures and snow angels, as well as bring home a special winter craft! Warm up inside with hot cocoa and LOTS of marshmallows!
